

Please do not relax any regulations which might eventually have the effect of squeezing out small broadcasters. I believe any policy where big conglomerates control information and manipulate ideas is bad for democracy.